Heard Sri K. S. Verma learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. The case rests upon the circumstantial evidence. The applicant was not named in the FIR and there is no eye account of the incident. The learned counsel for the applicant contended that the name of the accused is not connected with the crime and there is no complete chain of the offence. There is no report on record that the thumb impression taken from the spot pertains to the accused person. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the C.J.M. concerned.
